of success in death by suspension.

rendered such care essential.

public ambutances, public ambulance surgeons and public hospitals were provided for the purpose of giving immediate attention and all possible relief to those of the

There seems a fair prospect for the rein-

TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 19.

SUBSCRIPTIONSTOTHEEVENING WORLD | public to whom misfortune in any form

PER MONTH. PER YEAR ..

BOUTH STR ST. WASHINGTON-81014TH ST

THE CINCINNATI CONVENTION.

will be placed in the field. Those established. Whether such a formation shall come or not, the Convention is to be a most interesting affair and can hardly fall of an important bearing on the course of

The call for the Convention was first issued with the date named as Feb. 23d.

a body, but from members of the Alliance finance, transportation, labor and land.

gives rise to much speculation as which acts upon it. Men high in the councils which have preceded the Cincinnati be easily secured. The work of the Convention to that end will nevertheless be closely should be granted at last after so long a have the doors thrown open on Sunday;

nor has it hesitated to proffer substantial aid when it was announced that financial reasons were back of the closing of the doors. Happily the desired result is now in which to secure a delightful afternoon of recreation and profit. The treasures of the Museum will begin to justify their purchase as they have never done before, for they will exert a refining and educational influence on those who will profit most therefrom. The Trustees have done a good thing. Again, congratulations to all con-

Ex-Queen NATALIE of Servia is not without friends. The Prefect of Belgrade compelled her to enter his carriage despite her where the royal yacht was waiting to trans-post her from the Kingdom. The students came to her rescue, unharnessed the horses and pulled her back to her residence.

There has been conflict and bloodshed over the business and two men have been killed.

way over prospective prosperity. His farming land has greatly increased in value road. The good man, who weighed 175, has laughed and laughed over his luck until he has eachinnated away sixty-five tion to the "Laugh and grow fat commandment. Something should be done

The coming season promises to be a lively one in yachting circles. Quite a number of new boats have been launched and the old if they were unknown. Soon the sea yachts, and good regattas may be expected.

There is no more inspiring sport than yachting, and the interest in it deepens

A Boston tatlor recently suicided in a

This is a dreadful excepotests, and she was driven to the quay,

The people will beneeforth have a fit place achieved.

airie beating.

俥

ne not from the Farmers' Alliance as political events.

This is right. He is too great a borse to be kept under the ban for the fault of the man who owns him.

The number of patriotic New York Re-Entered at the Fost-Office at New York as sec publicans who would consent to run for ond-class matter. Governor is said to be limited by little less NOT BRANCH OFFICES; WORLD UPTOWN OFFICE—1297 BROADWAY than the party roll.

between 31st and 32d sts., New York. BROOKLYN - 350 POLYON St. HARLEM -The news that MATTHEW STANLEY QUAY has been snubbed by the President follows a good deal. Lands save ye! but I know Ratin Hamilton Wars. News Department, 150 East 1257H Sr.; Adverusements at 237 East 1157H Sr.
PHILADELPHIA, PA.—LEDGER BUILDING, 112 in Armenia. closely on the tidings of that new volcano

LONDON OFFICE-32 COCESPUR ST., TRAFAL-Another cashler has gone wrong. This one is young and pretty, and her employer has gone with her, leaving his wife behind.

If the desires and hopes of the leaders are The Hudson River must be preserved. carried out in the Convention which opens Therefore the North Woods, which shelter at Cincinnati to-day, a third party its headwaters, must be save 1.

leaders say that it will be a strong Anti-Progress gets another body blow party and a formidable opponent of the principal political organizations already with the opening of the Museum of Art on Sundays.

Our Giants are become as pigmies in the land. The idea is rentilate and light the tunnel

SPOTLETS.

Mr. 'Harrison has tripped back. He doubtless congratulates himself on not having tripped up. Convention at Ocala, Fla., and it was adton parson said be liked beer and the people dressed to all who have stood up for indeident political action on the questions of Goodwords has a servant girl named Rose, who is so proper and contained that he says she is a prim-About twenty different bodies, including branches of the Alliance, Mutual Benefit As- ross, ations, People's party organizations, La-Deeds are better than words when there are not bor Unions and other industrial formatoo many lawyers on the deeds.

tireless whire this earth is found tions are to be represented in the Convention, and the diversity of these ele-For ver toward the morrow humming;
The love that makes the world go round
Must be the love of what is coming!
—Exchange, ments and of their claims and demands to the policy which will be found The only good biaze in a forest is the one made on an effectual harmonizer at Cincipnati.

The eight-hour question, the silver ques-The loss that is most like a quadruped is a forfeit tion and the varying ideas of farmer delegates from the East, South and West Four-feet suggest a quadruped.

on matters of National banking and cur-After a while people will want to know where rency, the rights of railways and other Parnell is buried.

on carriers - all these things and Artists may not be up in arithmetic, but they are more will confront the men who draw very fond of figures. up the platform and the Convention gathering are sanguine that harmony will When Mme. Blavatsky and Col. Olcott began to preach theosophy in New York in 1875 they could moster hardly half a dozen adherence. New the meertion is made that the movement has 100,000 ollowers to America.

WORLDLINGS.

and—as the existing parties are concerned— OMING INTO THEIR RIGHT.

The sincerest congratulations are due to the people of New York City over the decision just arrived at by the Trustees of the Metropolitan Museum of Art to open that institution on Sundays. This is nothing James C. Food, the widow of the noted mining man and banker. She passes the greater part of her time with her daughter in their country residence a more than a concession to the people of a The reason of rejoicing is that it Mento Park, and the big house on "Non Hill "remains closed through two-thirds of the year, Phillips Brooks is descanded from the Rev. John Cotton, whose namesake was Cotton Mather, the famous preacher of the New England colonial days. beveral other of Dr. Brooks's ancestors were divines, There is no need to reflect on what has been the case. It was wrong, and the open. ing of the Museum does not repair it, but in both na mother's and his lather's line. at least the perpetuation of the wrong is Young George Vanderbilt, the most studious an stopped, and that is a great good. From retiring member of the rich ismur, a sender and the start, THE WORLD has taken the side of stoop-shouldered, with black eyes and swarthy com the people and has argued and fought to usual advantages that great wealth confers.

VAGRANT VERSES.

Lost to View. He did not run sway to see And dome back never more He was not spirited away. Like Charley ross, or yore.

Oh. no. He bought a new hor-coat,
Of large and amole mean.
And since the cay he put it on
He has not once been seen.
- Clother and Furnisher. A Sign of Spring.

The sure t sign of Spring so fair That we've a on yet Is this sign, bung up everywhere— TO LET. - Judge.

A Paradox.

The cirk who has been hired tirows strange, beyond a doubt; For when he has been fired the says he is put out.—Judge.

Kismet. And and it will not draw.

An Encouraging Prospect. [From the Clothier and Parauter.] Thilor-Do you think you con d manage to The popular feeling is largely with the settie up your account by the 1st, air? You unhappy Natalis. She is a lovely woman know you spoke to me the other dry about a of thirty-one. Beauty and distress in rich uncle way-Yes, sir, and that account will be woman naturally stir men's hearts to chivtad with one possible exception.

Tailor (eggers)—An a west is that, sir?
Jagway (caimis)—That is in case my uncle doesn't de A Bucks County Dutch farmer is in a sad

Where Marriage Was a Failure. From the Clothier and Furnisher, 1 Brig s-Poor Roomson, After his wife died through the extension of the Rending Rail- he married her dressmaker, tiring -- llow are they getting on?
If ges -- I understand that he sill owes her he money.

Color Blind, [From the Boston Bearen, ] Mr. Sonice—Ab, how do you do, Miss Green !

to sadden him or he will laugh himself into an echo. It is so hard to bear prosperity of excuse me, I'm sure—I am color blind. Below Par.

| From the Clothier and Furnisher ! Kingley-Don't you at times lose confidence in you self, and feel utterly weak, as if, in ones have been returbished and overhauled.

Itiliz: Ye:, I felt so ine other my when my till their doings under these alterations wil be watched with as much interest as

You Need It Now will be flecked with the snowy sails of the

To impart strength and to give a feeling of health and vigor throughout the system, there is nothing equal to Hood's haresparilis. It seems poculiarly adapted to everence that tired feeling stised by change of season, climate or life, and while it tones and sustains the system it purifies and repoyates the blood.

novel but effective way. He planted a Hood's Sarsaparilla indder against his house, and mounting it. Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared hanced himself from the topmost round. only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass. de gensoped with humor is more ac-100 Doses One Dollar

THE PATENT TOWEL-RACK MAN.

"Well, how goes the asked of the inventor and proprietor yesterday as I met him in Canal street.

ag'in? Weal, the New York public is still fighting shy of my great invention. but I'm hangin' on like a dog to a root. If I ain't takin' orders and gittin' rich I'm Brill Brow havin' lots of experience, and that's with A.T. G. S forty times as much as I did a week ago !" "Well, that's good." "Yesterday a feller comes up to me on a street down here a piece, and says he : " Obediar, that coat of yours needs reobleege, 1 11

"But you didn't go?"

"Oh, yes, I did-went right up to him and said I'd take a collar if he was givin' 'em away and wasn't too tired. He said I wasn't drunk 'nuff and told me to go on.' 'You mustn't mind such jokes."

"Oh, I don't, I'm a great joker myself when I am to home. It was me that wa'ch them with an increasing care, and you set one of my strawstacks aftre to scare out do not consider for a mome at the question of a hog, and the ragin' flames licked up two barns and a stack of hay-no insurance. I'm right on hand every time when there's fun goin' on. Say !" " Well!"

" I've struck sunthin' in this town which beats hard elder with gin in it! Up to a the medium through which the aufferings of week ago I thought that was the gloriousest the little ones will be alteriated. A small army drink in the world, but it don't begin. They call it Thomas and Jerry. I was a-feelin' a little down-hearted yesterday, and kinder bankerin' arter some Huckleberry Plains THE Evi hard elder, when I dropped into a place readers, proposes to turnisa tae little tots with and says 1:

" He' you got sunthin' to cavort over the heart strings of a man who is far, far from home, ekal to hard cider? I'm in the middle of strangers and a bit discouraged, and I want sunthin' to cheer me."

" And he mixes me a Thomas and Jerry, and I hadn't got it down three minutes when I wanted to jump a seven-rail fence and yell for this glorious old Union. Say I wouldn't have Elder Spooner hear of it for an acre of turnips! I know what he'd say. He'd come over and sot on my cornsay. He'd come over and sot on my cornstill Sixth avesue - na 45 Cortlands street. field fence and put on his spectacles and

"' Noer, you invented a kitchen roller towel-rack and went down to New York to sell it to the people. You was guileless as a red calf in the front yard when you started out, but alas! you fell. I know all about

" Oh, no."

"Thankee, I didn't know how that Thomas and Jerry would work. Jest wait till I put a leetle more bayseed on my bat, I'm jest a plain, every-day man, tillin' the sile fur a livin', and I don't want to false pretense anybody. This mornin' I was down by the river and a man stops me and looks at my towel rack and says : " Whar's the drive-wheel and the low water indicator, and so on?'

" ' My friend !' says I, 'that's one of the strong pints in favor of my patent Seek-No-Further kitchen roller towel rack. She ain't got no machinery to git out of order, nd any child kin run it. has bin used fur two or three weeks you jest lift up this end of the roller, slip another on, and away she goes. Hangs by one nail only, saves a quarter of a yard on very towel, and she's bound to git to the front if you give her time !

" Do you want somebody to hoop 'e up ?' says he.

" 'That's the plumb-centre idea,' says I. "Then he tells me to go down half a block and turn into the alley, and I'd find a man to do the hoopin'."

... And did you?' I asked. "Sartin! He was a cooper! I hunted around for the other feller, but couldn't find him. I was goin' to dare him outside the city limits and mop him over a ten-acre lot, but nebbe it's jest as well. I lit onto a chicken buyer down at Huckleberry Plains last winter fur sellin' my wife No. 7 shoes when he knowed she wore 8's, and it cost me seven dollars fine and more'n a bar'l of night-

M. QUAD. Plain Cook. [From Harper's Baser.

Mrs. Young wife (to presty applicant)-No, 1 don't think you will do. Applicant-But I am able to cook in the bes style.

5:18. Youngwife-1 guess 1 know my business; 1 advertised for a plain cook. All Explained.

(From the Cothier and Paratiber, )
**Conductor, " murmured the affrighted pas-**Conductor, marmured the arrigated pas-senger, "what's the matter in the next Pul-man e.f. Are they saying a light in there?" "Worse than that," replies the conductor; "one of the ladies is trying to the ner hus-hand's necktie for him."

Plenty of Room. (Prom Harper's Basar, 1)
Conductor - Siep forward there, please. Irate Passenger-I'm torward as far as I can go. There's no room forward, as far as I can Wag-You are wrong, st. There's about six miles of space just shead of the horses.

Not Appropriate. [From Barner's Bozar, ] Reportah-How did your banquet go off, Banklure 7 Bankturk-Not as well as it might, you know. The tossitmaster called on a gentlema who had lost an eye, an e-r and a leg : answer to the tossi, "Our absent members.

A Little One's Charity. | Prom the New York Weekly. ] Little Boy-Mamms, may I give what's in my savings bank to that beggar man? Mamma—You dear, sweet little energh! Do you want to give a may all of that money your under gave you? There was over a dollar.
"I spent some oil, mamma."
"There's a twonty-two cost piece left, but the capty man said it was bad."

The Talk of the Town!!
Is FLINT's display of Fice Furniture at half last season's prices. ntores lith st. and 6th are. "."

THE WORLD: TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 19, 1891.

Send in Your Mites and Help to Swell the Fund.

Seek-No-Further roller towel-rack to I Free Doctors Are a Necessity Among the Poor.

"Oh! Is that you The Hot Weather Is Coming, So Begin at Once.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS The Evening World "...... $100.00 Previous y soknowledged ...... 233.63 Faith.....

The approach of warm weather with its sweller ng days and breezele s nights should be a warning to the more wealthy New Yorkers to pr pare their families for the country, where their little ones can revel in pairs. Go down on the corner and ask the fresh art, fresh in it and wholesome food.

policeman to give you a collar. He's an But good-nearted and considerate people are awful nice man, and he'll be glad to ever thoughtful of the suffe ings of hum suity, and especialty of the condition of the children o the poor whose lives are spent in cramped, crowded and unbraithy tenements that are found all over this nig city.

bickness from a stiding humidity soon ap nears among them, and then, from lack of medleal treatment and proper nourisament, death ensues with a violence that is appalling. When your little darlings are ailing you expense if a change of air in the nature of a trip to the country is found a tyleable. Thousands of oables in this city in a few weeks will become the worthy object of charitable consideration of the readers of THE EVENING WORLD. THE EVENING WORLD'S Free Doctor Fund is of physicians, going from house to house in the swarming tenement districts, will again give battle to old Humility and its direful con-

THE EVENING WORLD, aided by its generou proper medicines and lood, but it will require funds to carry on the good work, Pennics have laid the foundation of many colossal fortune, and every penny, dime or follar received will be out to its pest use. The list of subscribers to the Free Doctors Fund is open to every one, and through it can be Mantened the sufferings of tender hu-

Old Friends.

Inclosed find our check for $5, our contribu

Thanks, Alva. Inclosed please find $1 to help the poor

ALVA G. S. Here's Another Quarter. To the Editor

Moved to Desperation,

Notary Public-Yes sir; what can I do for Four Excited Individual-Give me the book, quick-I want to take an oath never to put down another carpet!

No Wonder.

narried Parcar. "Because he objected to it, I suppose ?"
"Yes; for whenever a c went to table-rap-Farrar began to get messages from his Frobably. From the Chicago Tribune. Irene-- Do you mean ta a y Maud is going to narry that usly, fet, old man who took her out to upper just how?

Laura - Ihal's what everybody says.
What a better pill he must be!"
'No: he's su_ar-costed, He is a wealthy

Evidence. From Harper's Basar.]
Old Cynic—Tha' g'ri huan't a pretty smile. Innee or Pupii-Way, she hasn't amiled once there we've been booking as her. Old Cynic-That proves what I said. Not Old Enough.

'Fingers were made before forks," remarked Miss Elder, at the table.
"Mise weren"t," replied Miss Plipp, spite-

FOR THE BABIES. THE WAYS OF WOMAN FAIR, CHANGES AT THE THEATRES.

Fads, Fashions and Fancies That Delight the Gentler Sex.

Chocolate Is Fashlonable-Look at the Luce Counters - A Demand for Blg Finger Rings-The Nurse Girl's Lunch Bag-Wilson Barrett's Daughters.

Chocolate is becoming more and more the chocolate. There is certainly chocolate and review of the performs or will appear in these chocolare, but it is most tempting when it countes during the week. combines a surpr se in chocolate, such at a box of sardines, elgarettes, cats' tongues or 5.00 lady fingers.

If you don't think lace is fashionable inst ook at the lace counter the next time you are out shouping.

half dime. These precious things are tacked on a velvet band and worn as a necklace intourist, containing a flask of sweet milk and a Gouriey, Wall supply of Graham crackers for the toddier's Jerome Sykes.

There is a fresh and undefinable demand for big finger rings. A girl with a silver-cornered willet goes into a jewelry store, a ks to see some rings, and fi's her middle finger over her glove. That means a thumb rine, and just now it is considered immensely lucky to wear one on a journey or going off.

A lurid meodrama, entitled "Kidnapped," we store attraction at H. C. Miner' People's Theatre last sign. Its motive was not cheer. Its notive was not cheer. Its not cheer. Its societies of all kinds. Among the last a who are promoting the undertaking are Viscountess litariserion, Margaret Lady Sandhurst, Rose litariserion, Margaret Lady Sandhurst, Rose Marg Crawanay, Mrs. Eva McLaren, Mrs. Bose her urst sphear nice in this country at Koster thing in the play. San loved him, and her well, he must make a sacrifice and gave her well, he must make a sacrifice and gave her well, he must make a sacrifice and gave her up. He did so most entertainingly.

Massingbers, &c. Mrs. Headlam is the honorable secretary.

The distribution of the Baseball Season, An in the second and Lucia, discussed as a page. How.

Figure 3 and Allen, must call artists; Sherman has followed Don Juan, and at a Saragossa (From the Chicago Tribune.)

made a hit in the role of London minners. In the inst of specially at its.

a pilgram, de down blond street to the numerous shrines of these devotees to the art of ureasmaking, you will did a door bearing the name of "Elita et Cle.," and if you accend to the resting clace of these latest recruis, you will be received by the fair daughters of Wilson Barrett. A saprime desire for occupation and love of independence have led tion and love of independence have led these young ladies to adopt the sign of a needle and thread. Until a year or two ago they found their vocation in nursing an invalid mother, the celebrated actress, Miss Heath, but when release came to her, and their work was taken from them, idleness proved intolerable to their energetic spirits, and they decides that they must have something to do, and although they have only been in business for six monitos, they have already as much work as they can manage. It is a responsible position for such young girls to take, and Miss Harrett finds that she must be at her shop before 10 o'clock, while she is seldon able to leave it before 6.50 o'clock. But she declares and does not mind the strain, and glories in having her hands uit). One of for six months, they have already us and glories in having her hands tull. One of her first efforts were the dresses for "The People's Idol," the piece with which Mr. Wilson Barrett opened his new theatre: and she also made the costumes for Miss Winlired Emery as Pauline, but she did not find that this was a paying form of advertise-ment, for in spite of all the compilmentary notices which the papers gave her, they have brought her no new customers. "Hous" complains that her chief difficulty is with fitters, who are as hard to get as they are hard to keep. They seem to be an inde en-dent race, and by no means moverate in their demands, for they are always sure of finding a situation. The young dress maker, which in search of a new hand, was told that madeine's terms were no less than six guineas per week, in addition to which she required her meals and wine, and, on Miss Barrett remarking that the was a great deal to ask, she received the reply, " Not at all, when you can

Appearance at the Park.

"Aunt Bridget's Baby " at the Bijou -"The Witch" at the Columbus.

NEW PARK THEATRE. John C. Rice, formerly associated with Monro., in the "trm" of Monroe and Rice, appeared es a lone s'ar last night at the New Park Theater in a farce, comedy by Herbert Hall Winslow, entitled "A Knotty Affair." There fashion at afternoon parties and sometimes for was a large and ence and Mr. Rice was cerdinners. There is a wonderful difference in tainly welcomed with apparent warmin. A > RIJOU THEATER. George W. Montoe, in "Aunt Bridget's Baby,' was the attraction at the B jou Theatre last of ht, and he was applanded by a very large sain nes. "Aunt Bridget's Baby" is new, though the title supports the former vehicle of Monroe and Rice, "My Auut Brid, et. " Mr. Monroe was supported by W. A. Mack, J. Aldrich Libber, Thomas L. Mack, Et Hefermen, Frank Casey, Nellie Rosebud

> > COLUMBUS THEATRE.

"The Witc : " b gan a week's engagement at the Co'embus Theatre last uight, with Marie Hubert Fromman us the star. The play was recently seen at the People's Theatre ouring the important locatrical week when critics found hemselves see we chind with the or six new place. It was received favorably. The Eventual world will esistain a criticism of "The Wiles" to-impurove.

GRAND OPERA-HOUSE. One of the best of Rose Countain's imperson-

DALY'S THEATHE. DALV'S THEATHE.

ROSADDA VIK'S ENDS DET SUCCESSFUL EDGAGEment at Daiy's Theatre Saturday night. I, st night she chan ed her bill and presented
"The Old Musician," "The Creak Kider" and "A Pantomime Referance." In Mr. Dolittle play Miss Vokes's mitation of the e uestrienne arou-ed a good deal of enthu-tism. "A Pantom me Rencalsat" was tunny, tue not a lunny as it need to be. FOURTEENTH STREET TREATRE.

FOURTHEND STREET THEATHE.

"Kate" was the play at the Fourteenth Street Theatre last night, and Annie Haley was the star. Mass Plany as Kate Desiming was highly effective, and the fact that see higher a true matronly for an interness in idea was willingly over looked by a tylical G and Opera-house and once. "Kate" was written by Junes C. Riaca, and is an interesting thouse by so me ansoriginal effort. WINDSON THEATRE.

Fanny Davenport has hair the color of a cow's tail, and like Cleopatra she wears it banged from car to ear.

There is a bunt and a good market for filegree, chased or jewelled buttous the size of a haif dime. These precious things are tacked

STANDARD THEATER.

STANDARD THEATAK.

STANDARD THEATAK.

Standard Theatre, last night. The opera has been well-connected nursegirls who frequent Central Park we'r smart little kangafrequent Central Park we remart ittle kanga-roe bags slung over the left shoulder, a la roux, Cecella Pollock, Edward M. Favor, Alex, tourist, complaining a flask of sweet milk and a Gourley, Wallace McCreery, Lotta Gilman and PEOPLE'S THEATRE.

KOSTER AND BIAL'S.

sand Morrossy. Imonene Comer and A. O. Duncee, who eventrionulam was one of the most enjoyable feature of the evening.

Company. HUBER'S MUSEUM. At Huber's Paince Museum on East Four-teenth street, there were 'arres sufficiency ves-ierday. Unon the state appared the Don late Specially Company. In the curris hais tiere was the usual collection of interesting objects. Souwell, the "Serpent King," handled ratioshakes, alterators and scorpio. 8. 8 rannells, the "Fire Queen," did her spe-ciaity effectively, and Little lamin was also on hand.

WORTH'S MUSEUM.

WORTH'S MUSEUM,

Prooklyn Theatres. PARK THRATHE.

Daniel Frohman's Lyce in Theatre Com-pany began a week's engagement at Co. Sinn's I'rk 'heatre lest bight, it sentine the late Don Bourbandt's comeny, ''Ol: Heads and loang lierre.' The scheeks land in 1844, and the quan it costumes and manner amout that the quant costumes and manner amount era are faithfully portrayed. Georgia C van. Eme S amon, flerrert Kelsey, W. Le Moyne and Nelson Wheateroft were, course, the prime movers. "In I der" the presented the latter part of the week. AMPRION ACADEMY.

Before a large audence, last evening. France witson and combany gave the initial performance of the popular operatio, "The Merry Mediarch," in the Endern Betrict, at the Ampaios, The operation out leather favor with the many precent, and Mr. W. som was foughly applianced, life was ably assisted by vias Marie Jansen, Charles Finnedt, Miss Nettle Lyford and Vias Laura Moore. The moste was efficiently interreted and the scenery and effects were magnificent.

**Comment" was the Attraction at the Star.

Refore a large antience, last evening. Fran

**Carmen was the attraction at the Star Theatre last night, and Corinne as "Carmencita" sang and danced and was rected with applaine as of yore. Corinne is a favorite here and a crowdest and hence we learned here.
The costumes were all new and everything was on a grand state. Stagess, Fosielie and Tony Williams, contedians, with new son a and foncy warings, and Bernard Urlion, baritone, were especially rood. Must Roberta Crawford and Miss Helen flarrington acted their parts well.

A conserv without a plot is a fold announces.

A come ty without a riot is n fold amounce-ment on the programmes of F sher's "A Cod D.y, which was given at the Newtry Theatre ise night. The a taor also since that it was written simply to in the respictance, to which is fully accessed. Perkins Fisher and Richard Morosco were the lessing full-inskers, awis set tomas Daly, lienrie Lynn, Carlotta and HYDE & BEHNAN'S. Ally Clar's burlesques amused a large audience at Hyde & fonman's last night. The company has its usual array of feminine beau

CHANGES AT THE THEATRES.

It, and several new singers and comedians.
The first part, a sort of half and half minered effort, was presented by Measrs, Ward, Vidocq, Melhtyre and Heath, the Misses hisy Clark and Emma Warde. Robin food and Antony and Cinopatra consect much laughter. Lew piled camp-stoo's enough to seat their passended and the park.

Appearance at the Park.

The Misses his Comedians.
The Oleaner.

The Cleaner.

The Cleaner.

The Cleaner.

The Cleaner.

The Cleaner.

The Cleaner.

The Misses his Clark piled camp-stoo's enough to seat their passenders and daring gers. I had occasion lately to go on one of these huge things just as the time of travel was setting nomeword. The workers were represented.

HUBER AND GEBHARDT'S CASINO One of the best buts of the sesson is given in week at Huber & Gebhardt's Cosino, its week at Huber & Gebhardt's C sino, comment on water is the Printo-e and West wartet. Lottle E ce, in male impersonations; and conscientious in the dramatic career of in their rooms. The lilac is pernaps too fra-Richard Manad id that the actor has now ar-rived at that enviable period when all that he place where the air is not too confined gives a ses is entitled to respectful consideration, and refreshing touch of persume to the plant when one is at perfect liberty to go to the theatre at which he plays in the expectation of of these days Mr. Mansheld may do more, and neid's "Don Juan," presented at the Garden Theatre last night, will add in any way to his reputation. He was actuated by the comlecendary personage whose name has become familiar as a household word; but he has country. lacked the power to do so convincingly. The exact point of the new play cannot be easily determined. In the first two acts Manageld led us to believe that he was going to give us a Keenan, the Tammany Hall leader in the sparkling, champ-guey comedy illustrating Tweifth Assembly District but recently he has the any and flippant side of Don Juan's life, gotten even closer than before. The pentisposabily treating us to an artistic little moral—men are now next door neighbors. Judge very lattle, you know, for we hate preachiness Newburger having taken up his residence be--and a finale in abso ute c ducidence with the side that of the ex-County Clerk, GRAND GPHA-HOUSE.

"DON JUAN."

If the best of Rose Coghian's impersonwas seen last might at the Grand O erah ckneyed legend that it was a visable to House, when this chi tribite acr as appeared as Stephanic, Ma quise d. Mobrivagt, in the inter-ting ting "to re-thing ting" work was as impres ive as ever, and she mide the adventuress ingularly interesting. Miss Corbina was superred by a c. paule company, healed by John T. Suillyan.

The story of Don Juan should be touched as Stephanic, Ma quise d. Mobrivagt, in the interesting ting "to re-thing ting" to re-thing ting about 10.30 I saw two bicyclers aske. The story of Don Juan should be touched as Stephanic, Ma quise d. Mobrivagt, in the lightly, hesitatingly, as the wings of the cement at ewalk around the Park. It was an elegant surface for their wheels to play over, who nesitates in such a history is lost. Once paule company, healed by John T. Suillyan. the unsympathetic or that of the ridiculous.

> act it became very apparent that the play- hensible. wright was an ac'or. So far he had held the cheaply theatrical at a respectful distance, the ring himself pracefully upon the gilded the Union Pacific Railway thinks, the golden edge of artistic comedy and skilful badinage. The effort was too great. In Act III. he fell tion of these erest United States, but since he with a sickening thun-nees that was startling. returned to New York, about a month ago, he The play became a melodrama, such as T. is satisfied that there is only one spot that Henry Frence would jump at for the Grand men should live in. That is New York Opera-liouse, and the last act contained a .. Bldr," as his confreres love to call him, most dangerous death scene, where Mr. Mans- labored for a year in California in the interests field deliberately attempted to arouse the sym- of the "Queen and Crescent route." Once he pathies of the audience for one of the most was a ratifoud man in Boston. beartiers, second and animal heroes that netion has known.

If Mr. Mansheld had kept to his original idea. that of sketching in bright agreeable wores difficult orthospical puzzle in this line I ever the peculiarities of Don Juan, and of punctusting these peculiar ties with a telling, occa-lonal incident, his play would have been lirdy." How does this man pronounce a name just as successful as "Bean B unimell." The which has but one "somet mea" yowel in it clever actor, however, slpped his inspirations and that the final letter? I can't understand from many sources—Lord Byron, Mollere, now he can twist his tongue for a start on it. Alexander Duma- senior, and Prosper Marimee -and his own object in so doing was lost. I do not know what to call "Don Juan." I: lan't a comedy, and it 'an't a tragedy, or a farce, or a larce-comedy, or a drama, 10 there could be such a thing as comedy-tragedy.

· Dan Juan "should be so classed.

In the first act Mr. Manageld told us of Don Juan's exploit with Donna Julia, the wife of the pery Alonzo, and the exploit was nearly and daintily set forth. Don Juan appeared and interested us. He was a boy, gay, frivolous and thoughtiess. Perhaps as we glanced at his unimpressive face, which, with its fellow part in amateur theatricals this year as he used hair looked like a Nuremberg doil, we won- to do. I thought he was looking a little thin. dered what the maidens saw in it to admire. one on a journey or going off.

The Broommaker' was the play at H. R. Jacobs'. The attribute with Realty, a clever dialect comedian, as the star. This play is not those who are interested in women's progressive Club, in order to unite those who are interested in women's progressive, and the star of the play at the star of the st cal and capricious, and therefore overlooked Court has affirmed the cl dm of Lawyer William the little difficulty. Don Juan was warmly Nelson Croniwell for his fee in the settlement loved by Lucia, who begged him to take a of Decker, Howell & Ca's affairs. True, the solemn yow of Edelite, and offered to marry anm of $263,000 looks large, as compensation him. This he would not do, preferring to for a few months' work, but no one who knows leave home. His scene with Donna Elvira. Mr. Cromwell will require the Court's assets

In the second act Lucia, discussed as a page, has followed Don Juan, and at a Saragossa cost in the neighborhood of $5, but one will outlast five cambric bats that need washing every week.

Wilson Barrett would not allow his daughters to go on the stage. They have, however, made a hit in the role of London minimers. In a pilgr mage down flond street to the numers of these of t hostelry surprises him in various amorous enwas fatal. It showed us that we had been asked to accept Don Juan seriously, to Mansheid's sake, and to tolerate his crockly his victousness and his utter lack of a solitary redeeming point. This was all wrong. It will

> In the title role, Mr. Mansfleid's work couljuvenile, amorous, heartless, and picturesque ne had bidden her face, might have been mistaken for the star.

to much praise. Mr. S'ernroyd, as the actor, 25 cents a bottle. All Grocers and Druggists struck the true note of "Don Juan," before it developed into a comedy-tragedy. ALAN DALE

BOOK NOTE.

"Widowed Wife and Wedded Maid" is the title of a novel published by the Belford Com-It is a translation from the French by pany. James Schonberg, and deals with the days of Napoleon, in which is told the peculiar marital relations of a young peasant, who afterwards becomes a General in Napoleon's army. The circumstances under which the marriage is contracted, the murderous jestousy of an in- BARGAINS in WELL-MADE, DURABLE jured wife and her unlying hatred make an interesting tale well told.

Better Than Nothing. [From the Clathter and Furnisher, She-There is a button almost off your coal You must allow me to sew it on, ite—th, no, indeed. I know that my tailor is longing to do it.

Sig.—I suppose he wants to get the cont

Always There.

[From the Clothter and Pornsher.] Dashaway-Say, old man, I wish you would tell me where your tailor is. I like his work and I want to order some cloines.
Travers (gloomily)—You will find him at my Tennis in Central Park.

Peck & Surder, in Bansu st., ere selling 66, 66 Becckman for 55; others are 61 to 55.

MOPELL's TRETHING COMPAL in testing souther the gums and calms the merves. 25 cents.

setting nomew rd. The workers were returning from New York to home and rest. I saw a number of three weary tollers maintaining a severe perpendicular because not a thing could be tound to sit on. And the boat was not crowded to excess either. What a lovely government would be that which obliged corporations who make money by ministering to the public to supply essential conveniences. I am glad that a flower which is fragrant and pretty is sold on the atreets at a price There has been so much that was sincere which makes it casy for poor people to have it

A friend of mine who has lately returned eing entertained. That is a great deal. One from Equatorial districts showed me several photographs which had been made by a Pernof these days Mr. Managerd may to the absolute wish photographer of the young women of that teach us to visit his playhouse in the absolute wish photographer of the young women of that teach us to visit his playhouse in the absolute occurry. There were about three bundred I do not think it at all likely that Mr. Mansfaces in each photograph, and I never saw woman in the w ole collection, and there was every variety of pretty ones. He told me the mentable ambition of galvanizing into life a girls were not selected for their beauty, but were the average upper-class girls of > Judge Joseph E. Newburger, of the City Court, always has been very close to Patrick men are now next door neighbors, Judge One evening about 10.30 I saw two bloyclers

Mr. Manageld heart ted. After the second ... headlight," which made it seem more represtope an altogether picturesque and lovely por-

> One sees many queer names on the bush signs of this cosmopolitan city, but the most encountered confronted me Saturday. It was

Those two energetic young women artists, Miss Emelie Sia e and Miss Frances Throop will go to Europe again this year. studied at Portrise last Summer with Louis Du Moulin, the French impressionist, and made cuite an anvance in their art. Mas Stade's portrait of a lady in the Society of American Art:sts' show this Spring is very good. I met Mr, Edward Fales Coward one day last week. Mr. Coward has not taken as much

It gravifies me to read that the Suprem

During the Baseball Season, Any-

[ Prom the Chicago Tribune. ] Clerk (about 2.89 P. M.)-I'll have to ask to

The genius of the bottle. He cheers but not inebriates. He is the genius of Knapp's Root Beer Extract Bottle and the refreshing servant of all who wish for a glass of Of the cast, W. J. Ferguson, Miss Maggie Holloway, and Vincent Sterproyd are entitled root-beer in five minutes.

Flint's Furniture.

YOU WILL NEVER KNOW

how little money is required to handsomely furnish your home unless a view is taken of THE MANY AND ARTISTIC FURNITURE We Are ROW

THAT GOODS so EXCELLENT CAN be SOLD so CHEAPLY SURPRISES ALL NOT FAMILIAR WITH OUR GREAT MANUFACTURING FACILITIES and habit of MARKING EVERY PIECE AT COST. AS IT COMES from the FACTORY. THE PRICES ARE TOO LOW SO SALES ON CREDIT.

FURNITURE MAKERS,

106 AND 108 WEST 14TH ST.

Baking ABSOLUTELY PURE

Highest of all in Leavening Power .- Latest U. S. Gov't Food Report.